

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
BOARD OF ETHICS AND GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABILITY

In Re: J. Johnson

Appellant

Case No. 20-0011-P

ORDER

The Board of Ethics and Government Accountability (“the Board”) considered the appeal in the above-captioned case. The Board considered the Order signed by the Director of the Office of Government Ethics (“OGE”) and a written appeal submission from the Appellant. In her order, the Director of OGE offered 29 numbered Findings of Fact. The Board adopts the Director’s Findings of Fact, as Appellant does not appear to disagree or provide facts to the contrary.

Based on a review of the above listed documents, the Board finds that the OGE Director’s fine of $4,000 is appropriate and this appeal is denied.

This is the Final Decision of the Board, as demonstrated by the signature of the Chairman below. Pursuant to 3 DCMR § 5404, Respondent may appeal the Final Order to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia within twenty (20) days of the date the Final Order is served upon him.
